Notification

8/91/62-AIS. III

The All India Services (Conduct) Rules, 1968

G. S. R. ... In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the All-India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951), the Central Government, after consultation with the Governments of the States concerned, hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the All-India Services (Conduct) Rules, 1968.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Government" means—

- (i) in the case of a member of the Service serving in connection with the affairs of the Union, the Central Government; or
- (ii) in the case of a member of the Service serving under a Foreign Government or outside India (whether on duty or on leave), the Central Government; or
- (iii) in the case of a member of the Service serving in connection with the affairs of a state, the Government of that State;

Explanation.—A member of the Service whose services are placed at the disposal of a company, corporation or other organisation or a local authority by the Central Government or the Government of a State shall, for the purposes of these rules, be deemed to be a member of the Service serving in connection with the affairs of the Union or in connection with the affairs of that state, as the case may be, notwithstanding that his salary is drawn from sources other than the Consolidate Fund of India or the Consolidate Fund of that State;

(b) 'member of family', in relation to a member of the Service, includes—

- (i) the wife or husband, as the case may be, of such member, whether residing with him or her or not, but does not include a wife or husband separated from the member of the Service by a decree or order of a competent court;
- (ii) the son or daughter or the step-son or step-daughter of such member and wholly dependent on him or her, but does not include a child or step-child who is no longer in any way, dependent on him or her or of whose custody the member of the Service has been deprived by or under any law; and
- (iii) any other person related, whether by blood or marriage, to such member or to his or her wife or husband, as the case may be, and wholly dependent on such member;

(c) "member of the Service" means a member of an All-India Service as defined in section 2 of the All India Services Act, 1951 (61 of 1951).

3. General.—(1) Every member of the Service shall at all times maintain a lute integrity and devotion to duty and shall do nothing which is unbecoming of a member of the Service.

(2) Every member of the Service shall take all possible steps to ensure integrity, of, and devotion to duty by, all Government servants for the time being under his control and authority.

(3) No member of the Service shall, in the performance of his official duties or in the exercise of powers conferred on him.—

- (i) act otherwise than in his best judgment except when he is acting under the direction of his official superior and he shall obtain such direction in writing, wherever practicable, and where it is not practicable, he shall obtain written confirmation as soon thereafter as possible;
- (ii) evade the responsibility devolving legitimately on him and seek instruction from, or approval of, a superior authority when such instruction or approval is not necessary if the scheme of distribution of powers and responsibilities.

4. Employment of near relatives in companies or firms.—(1) No member of the Service shall use his position or influence directly or indirectly to secure employment for any member of his family with any company or firm.

(2) (a) No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government, permit his son, daughter or dependent to accept employment with any company or firm having official dealings with the Government;

Provided that where the acceptance of such employment cannot await the sanction of the Government or is otherwise considered urgent, the matter shall be reported to the Government; and the employment may be accepted provisionally subject to the sanction of the Government.

(b) A member of the Service shall, as soon as he becomes aware of the fact of acceptance by a member of his family of an employment with any company or firm, report to the Government the fact of such acceptance and also whether he has or has had any official dealings with that company or firm.

Provided that no such report shall be necessary if the member of the Service has already obtained sanction of, or sent a report to, the Government under clause (a).

(3) (a) No member of the Service shall, in the discharge of his official duties, deal with any matter relating to, or award any contract in favour of, a company or firm or any other person, if any member of his family is employed in that company or firm or under that person or if he or any member of his family is interested in such company or firm or other person in any other manner.

(b) In any case referred to in clause (a), the member of the Service shall refer the matter to his official superior and the case shall thereafter be disposed of according to the instructions of the official superior.

5. Taking part in politics and elections. — (1) No member of the Service shall be a member of, or be otherwise associated with, any political party or any organisation which takes part in politics, nor shall he take part in, or subscribe in aid of, or assist in any other manner, any political movement or political activity.

(2) It shall be the duty of every member of the Service to endeavour to prevent any member of his family from taking part in, or subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any movement of activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established, and where a member of the Service is unable to prevent a member of his family from taking part in, or subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any such movement or activity, he shall make a report to that effect to the Government.

(3) If any question arises whether any movement or activity falls within the scope of this rule, the question shall be referred to the Government for its decision.

(4) No member of the Service shall canvass or otherwise interfere with, or use his influence in connection with, or take part in, an election to any Legislature or local authority:

Provided that —

- (i) a member of the Service qualified to vote at any such election may exercise his right to vote, but where he does so, he shall give no indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted; and
- (ii) a member of the Service shall not be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this sub-rule by reason only that he has assisted in the conduct of an election in the due performance of a duty imposed on him by or under any law for the time being in force.

Explanation. — The display by a member of the Service on his person, vehicle or residence of any electoral symbol shall amount to using his influence in connection with an election, within the meaning of this sub-rule.

6. Connection with press or radio. — (1) No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government, own, wholly or in part, or conduct or participate in the editing or management of any newspaper or other periodical publication.

(2) No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government or any other authority empowered by it in this behalf, or except in the bona fide discharge of his duties.

- (a) publish a book himself or through a publisher, or contribute an article to a book or a compilation of articles, or
- (b) participate in a radio broadcast or contribute an article or write a letter to a newspaper or periodical;

either in his own name or anonymously or pseudonymously or in the name of any other person:

Provided that no such sanction shall be required.

- (i) if such publication is through a publisher and is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character; or
- (ii) if such contribution, broadcast or writing is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character.

7. Criticism of Government. — No member of the Service shall, in any radio broadcast or in any document published anonymously, pseudonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person or in any communication to the press or in any public utterance, make any statement of fact or opinion.

- (i) which has the effect of an adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or a action of the Central Government or a State Government; or
- (ii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Central Government and any State Government; or
- (iii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Central Government and the Government of any foreign State.

Provided that nothing in this rule shall apply to any statement made or views expressed by a member of the Service in his official capacity and in the due performance of the duties assigned to him.

8. Evidence before committees, etc. — (1) Save as provided in sub-rule (3), no member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government, give evidence in connection with any inquiry conducted by any person, committee or other authority.

(2) Where any sanction has been accorded under sub-rule (1), no member of the Service giving such evidence shall criticise the policy or any action of the Central Government or of a State Government.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall apply to—

- (a) evidence given at any inquiry before an authority appointed by the Government, or by Parliament or by a State Legislature; or
- (b) evidence given in any judicial inquiry; or
- (c) evidence given at departmental inquiry ordered by any authority subordinate to the Government.

(4) No member of the Service giving any evidence referred to in sub-rule (3) shall give publicity to such evidence.

9. Unauthorised communication of information.—

No member of the Service shall, except in accordance with any general or special order of the Government or in the performance in good faith of the duties assigned to him, communicate directly or indirectly any official document or part thereof or information to any Government servant or any other person to whom he is not authorised to communicate such document or information.

Explanation.—Quotation by a member of the Service (in his representations to the Head of Office or Head of Department or President) of, or from, any letter, circular or office memorandum, or from the notes on any file, to which he is not authorised to have access, or which he is not authorised to keep in his personal custody or for personal purposes, shall amount to unauthorised communication of information within the meaning of this rule.

10. Subscriptions.—No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government or of such authority as may be empowered by it in this behalf, ask for, or accept contributions to, or otherwise associate himself with the raising of, any fund or other collections in cash or in kind in pursuance of any object whatsoever.

11. Gifts.—(1) Save as provided in these rules, no member of the Service shall accept, or permit his wife or any other member of his family or any other person acting on his behalf to accept, any gift exceeding seventy-five rupees in value without the previous sanction of the Government.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule “gift” includes free transport, free boarding, free lodging or any other service or pecuniary advantage when provided by a person other than a near relative or personal friend having no official dealings with the member of the Service but does not include a casual meal, casual lift or other social hospitality.

(2) Where it is not practicable for a member of the Service to obtain the previous sanction of the Government under sub-rule (1) for accepting, or permitting his wife or any other member of his family or any other person acting on his behalf to accept, any gift exceeding seventy-five rupees in value, he shall, within one month of the acceptance of such gift, make a report to the Government stating the circumstances under which such gift was accepted, and if the Government does not approve of such acceptance, he shall return the gift to the donor.

(3) On occasions such as weddings, anniversaries, funerals and religious functions, when making of gifts is in conformity with the prevailing religious or social custom, gifts may be accepted—

(a) from near relatives, provided that a report shall be made to the Government if the value of any such gift exceeds five hundred rupees;

(b) from personal friends having no official dealings with the member of the service, provided that a report shall be made to the Government if the value of any such gift exceeds two hundred rupees.

(4) Members of the Service shall avoid accepting lavish hospitality or frequent hospitality from individuals having official dealings with them or from industrial or commercial firms or other organisations.

12. Public demonstrations in honour of Government Servants.—

(1) No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government, receive any complimentary or valedictory address or accept any testimonial or attend any meeting or entertainment held in his honour or in the honour of any other Government Servant:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall apply to—

(i) a farewell entertainment of a substantially private and informal character held in honour of a member of the Service or any other Government servant on the occasion of his retirement or transfer or of any person who has recently quit service of Government; or

(ii) the acceptance of simple and inexpensive entertainments arranged by public bodies or institutions.

(2) No member of the Service shall exercise pressure of any sort on any Government servant to induce him to subscribe towards any farewell entertainment even if it is of a substantially private and informal character.

13. Private trade or employment.—(1) No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government, engage directly or indirectly in any trade or business or undertake any employment.

Provided that a member of the Service may, without such sanction, undertake honorary work of a social or charitable nature or occasional work of a literary, artistic or scientific character, subject to the condition that his official duties do not thereby suffer; but he shall not undertake, or shall discontinue, such work if so directed by the Government.

Explanation.—Canvassing by a member of the Service in support of the business or insurance agency or commission agency, owned or managed by his wife or any other member of his family shall be deemed to be a breach of this sub-rule.

(2) Every member of the Service shall, if any member of his family is engaged in a trade or business, or owns or manages an insurance agency or commission agency, report that fact to the Government.

(3) No member of the Service shall, without the previous sanction of the Government or except in the discharge of his official duties, take part in the registration, promotion or management of any Bank or other company registered under the Companies Act, 1956 or any other law for the time being in force, or any co-operative society the primary object of which is a commercial purpose;

Provided that a member of the Service may take part in the registration, promotion or management of a co-operative society substantially for the benefit of Government servants or of a literary, scientific or charitable society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860), or any corresponding law in force.

Explanation. — In this sub-rule, "cooperative society" means a society registered, or deemed to be registered, under the Cooperative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912) or any other law relating to cooperative societies for the time being in force in any State.

(4) No member of the Service shall accept any fee for any work done for any public body or for any private person without the sanction of the Government.

14. Investments, lending and borrowing. — (1) No member of the service shall speculate in any stock, share or other investments.

Explanation. — Frequent purchase or sale or both, of shares, securities or other investments shall be deemed to be speculation within the meaning of this sub-rule.

(2) No member of the Service shall make, or permit any member of his family or any person acting on his behalf to make, any investment which is likely to embarrass or influence him in the discharge of his official duties.

(3) If any question arises whether any transaction is of the nature referred to in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), it shall be referred to the Government for its decision.

(4) (i) No member of the service shall, save in the ordinary course of business with a bank or a public limited company, himself or through any member of his family or any person acting on his behalf, —

- (a) lend or borrow or deposit money as a principal or agent, to, or from, or with, any person or firm or private limited company within the local limits of his authority or with whom he is likely to have official dealings or otherwise place himself under pecuniary obligation to such person or firm; or
- (b) lend money to any person at interest or in manner whereby return in money or kind is charged or paid.

Provided that a member of the Service may give to, or accept from, a relative or a personal friend a purely temporary loan of small amount free of interest or operate a credit account with a bona fide tradesman or make an advance of pay to his private employee.

Provided further that nothing in this sub-rule shall apply in respect of any transaction entered into by a member of the Service with the previous sanction of the Government.

(ii) When a member of the Service is appointed or transferred to a post of such nature as would involve him in the breach of any of the provisions of sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (4), he shall forthwith report the circumstances to the Government and shall thereafter act in accordance with such order as may be made by the Government.

15. Insolvency and habitual indebtedness. — (1) A member of the Service shall so manage his private affairs as to avoid habitual indebtedness or insolvency.

(2) A member of the Service against whom any legal proceeding is instituted for recovery of any debt due from him or from adjudging him as an insolvent, shall forthwith report the full facts of such legal proceeding to the Government.

(3) The burden of proving that indebtedness or insolvency is the result of circumstances which, with the exercise of ordinary diligence, the member of the Service could not have foreseen, or over which he had no control, and has not proceeded from extravagant or dissipated habits, shall be upon him.

16. Movable, immovable and valuable property. — (1) Every person shall, —

- (a) Where such person is a member of the Service at the commencement of these rules, before such date after such commencement as may be specified by the Government in this behalf or;
- (b) Where such person becomes a member of the service after such commencement, on his first appointment to the service, and thereafter at such intervals as may be specified by the Government in this behalf, submit a return of his assets and liabilities, in such form as may be specified by the Government.

(2) The return to be submitted under sub-rule (1) shall contain full particulars regarding —

- (a) immovable property owned, acquired or inherited by him or held by him on lease or mortgage, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or in the name of any other person;
- (b) shares, debentures, Postal Cumulative time deposits and cash including bank deposits owned, acquired or inherited by him or held by him, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or in the name of other person;
- (c) movable property other than those specified in clause (b);
- (d) debts and other liabilities incurred by him directly or indirectly.

Note: In all returns the values of items of movable property, less than one thousand rupees in value, may be added or shown as a lump sum and the value of articles of daily use such as clothes, utensils, crockery and books need not be included.

(3) No member of the Service shall, except with the previous knowledge of the Government, —

- (a) acquire any immovable property by lease, mortgage, purchase, gift or otherwise, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family; or

- (b) dispose of by lease, mortgage, sale, gift or otherwise any immovable property owned by him or held by him either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family:

Provided that the previous sanction of the Government shall be obtained if any such transaction is: —

- (i) with a person having official dealings with the member of the Service; or
- (ii) otherwise than through a regular or reputed dealer.

(4) A member of the Service shall report to the Government within one month from the date of every transaction entered into by him either in his own name or in the name of a member of his family in respect of movable property if the value of such property exceeds one thousand rupees;

Provided that the previous sanction of the Government shall be obtained if any such transaction is: —

- (i) with a person having official dealings with the member of the Service; or
- (ii) otherwise than through a regular or reputed dealer.

(5) The Government or any authority empowered by it in this behalf may, at any time, by general or special order, require a member of the Service to furnish, within a period specified in the order, a full and complete statement of such movable or immovable property held or acquired by him or on his behalf or by any member of his family as may be specified in the order and such statement shall if so required by the Government or by the authority so empowered, include details of the means by which, or the source from which, such property was acquired.

Explanation: For the purposes of this rule, the expression "immovable property" includes inter alia the following property, namely: —

- (a) jewellery, insurance policies the annual premia of which exceeds one thousand rupees or one-sixth of the total annual emoluments received by the member of the Service from the Government whichever is less, shares, securities and debent,
- (b) loans advanced by or to such member of the Service, whether secured or not;
- (c) motor cars, motor cycles, horses, or any other means of conveyance; and
- (d) refrigerators, radios and radiograms.

17. Vindication of acts and character of members of the Service. — No member of the Service shall, except with the previous sanction of the Government, have recourse to any court or to the press for the vindication of any official act which has been the subject matter of adverse criticism or any attack of a defamatory character.

Explanation. — Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prohibit a member of the Service from vindicating his private character or any act done by him in his private capacity, provided that he shall submit a report to the Government regarding such action.

18. Canvassing. — No member of the Service shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service under the Government.

19. Bigamous Marriages. — (1) No member of the service shall enter into, or contract, a marriage with a person having a spouse living; and

(2) no member of the Service, having a spouse living shall enter into, or contract, a marriage with any person:

Provided that the Government may permit a member of the service to enter into, or contract, any such marriage as is referred to in clause (1) or clause (2), if it is satisfied that —

- (a) such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such member of the Service and the other party to the marriage; and
- (b) there are other grounds for so doing.

20. Consumption of intoxicating drinks and drugs. — A member of the Service shall —

- (a) strictly abide by any law relating to intoxicating drinks or drugs in force in any area in which he may happen to be for the time being;
- (b) take due care that the performance of his duties is not prejudiced or affected in any way by influence of such drinks or drugs;
- (c) not appear in a public place in a State of intoxication;
- (d) not habitually use such drinks or drugs to excess.

21. Interpretation. — If any doubt arises as to the interpretation of these rules, the Central Government shall decide the same.

22. Delegation of powers. — The Government may, by general or special order, direct that any power exercisable by it under these rules (except the power under rule 21 or the power under this rule) shall, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by such officer or authority as may be specified in the order.

23. Cesser and saving. — The All-India Services (Conduct) Rules, 1954 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), shall cease to be in force:

Provided that the cesser shall not affect —

- (a) the previous operation of, or anything duly done or suffered under, the said rules; or
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the said rules; or
- (c) any penalty or punishment incurred under the said rules; or
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty or punishment may be imposed as if the said rules had not ceased to be in force.
